ORDER:

Heard.

2. The grievance of the petitioner in this writ petition is that in spite of report of the petitioner dated 14.01.2015 and direction of respondent No.3 on 02.03.2015, respondent No.6 is not registering the crime and not taking up any further action.

3. Instructions of the learned Government Pleader, however, show that against the complaint of burning of his house on 12.02.2015 at 01:00 AM, originally a case in crime No.9 of 2015 was registered on 13.01.2015 by Avanigadda Police recording as accidental fire. Thereafter, petitioner filed further complaint on 14.02.2015 suspecting six members, three of whom are their neighbours. Since the investigation was carried out as per the complaint of the petitioner and on finding, prima facie, material the section of law was altered from accidental fire to Section 436 IPC on 23.03.2015 and the alteration memo was submitted to the Court of Additional Judicial Magistrate of First Class, Avanigadda. It is also stated that two of the accused were already arrested and sent to remand and further investigation is going on.

4. In view of the above averments, the writ petition is disposed of directing respondent No.6 to complete the investigation expeditiously and file appropriate report before the concerned court in accordance with law.

As a sequel, the miscellaneous applications, if any, shall stand closed. There shall be no order as to costs.
