

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE U.DURGA PRASAD RAO
Crl.P.M.P.No.800 of 2015 in Crl.P.No.15239 of 2014
and
Crl.P.No.15239 of 2014

Common Order:

The defacto complainant and her counsel Sri V.N.Angani are present. A.1 to A.4 (as per Remand Case Diary dated 20.06.2013) and their counsel Sri B.S.N. Naidu are present.

Heard both sides and perused the petition.

On the report given by defacto complainant, the Police of Asifnagar P.S registered a case in Crime No.123 of 2013 against the accused for the offences under Sections 468, 471 and 420 IPC and investigation is stated to be pending.

While-so, now the submission of both parties is that the accused are none other than the mother, brothers and sister of the defacto complainant and at the intervention of elders all of them have amicably resolved their disputes and the defacto complainant has no objection for quashment of the proceedings and hence, permission may be accorded to them to enter into compromise and quash the proceedings in the interest of justice.

Having regard to the above said submission and considering that the matter is a family dispute wherein the parties have allegedly produced a false death certificate of the defacto complainant and obtained her insurance amount and later at the intervention of elders, they have resolved their disputes and also considering that no useful purpose will be served if the investigation is allowed to be continued as the chances of the conviction of the accused in trial are bleak and also following the decision reported in Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another<sup>[1]</sup>, this petition is allowed, permission is accorded and compromise is recorded and consequently the proceedings in FIR No.123 of 2013 of Asifnagar P.S are hereby quashed.

In the result, both the petitions are accordingly disposed of.

As a sequel, miscellaneous petitions pending, if any, shall stand closed.
