

In the High Court of Punjab and Haryana, Chandigarh

COC-102-2015

Decided on:30.01.2015

Mahavir Parshad and others Petitioner(s) vs.

Shymal Mishra and othersRespondent(s)

CORAM HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK

Present Mr. Shalender Mohan, Advocate for the petitioners.
Mr. P.S. Poonia, Advocate for respondents.

RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J (ORAL)

Replies by way of affidavit dated 30.01.2015 of Shamal Mishra – respondent no.1 as well as that of Puja Chaudhary – respondent no.2 filed in Court today are taken on record and copies thereof have been supplied to the learned counsel for the petitioners.

Learned counsel for the respondents submits that in view of the order passed in CWP No. 16055-2014, the instant contempt petition has been rendered infructuous and may be disposed of, as such.

In view of the above undisputed position on record, it goes without saying that the respondents shall maintain status quo ante, which will be the natural result of the orders passed in the writ petition.

Faced with the above, learned counsel for the petitioners also fairly states that let the instant contempt petition be disposed of as having been rendered infructuous, in view of the statement made by learned counsel for the respondents.

In view of the above, the instant contempt petition stands disposed of as having been rendered infructuous.
