

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

COCF no. 1524 of 2013(O&M)

Date of Decision : 18.08.2015

Mahender Singh

....Petitioner

Versus

Lal Chand and others

...Respondents

CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE MAHESH GROVER

Present : Mr. Ajay Jain, Advocate for the petitioner

Mr. P.R.Yadav, Advocate for the respondents

MAHESH GROVER, J.

The petitioner alleges violation of the orders of this Court granting status quo which fact is denied by the respondents. In support of their plea the respondents have placed on record two affidavits of co-villagers. There is no conclusive material from where it can be inferred that the allegations of disturbing his possession by the petitioner are correct. It is one word against the other and therefore in the exercise of jurisdiction under the Contempt of Courts Act, this Court would not venture to inflict any consequences upon the respondents when the allegations cannot be established conclusively. Instant petition is, therefore, dismissed, leaving the parties to their remedies in law.
