.....Respondent

Coram: Hon'ble Mr. Justice Rakesh Kumar JainPresent: Mr. Amit Khatkar, Advocate for the petitioner(s).Mr. Sanjeev Sharma, Sr. Standing Counsel and Mr. Vikramvir Sharda, Standing Counsel for the respondent(s).Rakesh Kumar Jain, J.(Oral)

Affidavit of Dr. Madhu Kaul, Principal, Government Home Science, College, Sector 10, Chandigarh is filed in Court in response to the notice issued in which it is averred in paragraph No. 5 "That on 21.07.2015, counseling started at 10.00 a.m. and was over by 11.00 a.m. as only 13 students attended the counseling. Students at serial no. 1,2,4,5,6 & 8 (in the merit list) were accepted for admission against the 6 seats from the general category of the local pool and the student at serial no. 7 (in the merit list) was accepted for admission against the SC (reserved category) seat. Student at Sr.No. 14 was admitted against the additional seat for Single Girl Child Category."

It is further submitted that the respondent has not committed any willful disobedience of the order of this Court as the order was brought to the college at 3.38 p.m. On 21.07.2015.

In view thereof, there is no reason to continue this petition and the same is hereby dismissed.
