

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

COCP No.1807 of 2015

Date of Decision :24.8.2015

Kewal Singh

....Petitioner

Versus

Amarvir Singh Sidhu and others

...Respondents

CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE MAHESH GROVER

....

Present: Mr. Saurabh Kaushik, Advocate for the petitioner.

.....

MAHESH GROVER.J.

By virtue of order dated 20.4.2010 a decree for joint possession of 1/7th share of 92 kanals 3 marlas land was passed in favour of the petitioner. While doing so the Court in the prior discussion has held the sale deed qua this share to be null and void. The petitioner alleges non-compliance of this order and prays for initiation of contempt proceedings against the respondents by contending that the mutation still continues to be in their names. There is nothing on record to show whether the petitioner resorted to execution of decree in his favour. Since he has a remedy to execute the decree in civil court, the plea that the mutation continues in the name of the beneficiaries of the sale-deed would not be an occasion to proceed against the respondents for having violated the order of this Court. The petition is, therefore, disposed of leaving the petitioner to his remedies in law.

24.8.2015
dss

(MAHESH GROVER)
JUDGE