Instructions (Colleges) Punjab has been filed in the Court today and the same is taken on record. A copy thereof has been supplied to the counsel opposite.

It is not disputed that the substantial payment pursuant to the orders of this Court have been made to the petitioner who however pleads a shortfall.

If that be so then the instant contempt petition is disposed of with permission to the petitioner to make a representation to the respondent with the particulars of the shortfalls and in the eventuality the same shall be looked into by the respondents to take a further decision in this regard as expeditiously as possible preferably within a period of two months from the date of receipt of such representation.
