The order of the Writ Court dated 23.05.2014 mandated a consideration on the representation to be preferred by the petitioner and release of consequential benefits in case the claim of the petitioner found favour with the respondents.

The reply indicates that the needful has been done and the claim of the petitioner rejected.

The reply was filed in October, 2014 and no counter affidavit has been filed. On the previous date of hearing as also today, there has been no representation on behalf of the petitioner.

Consequently, the petition is disposed of in view of the stand taken by the respondents regarding compliance of the orders of the Writ Court leaving the petitioner to his remedies in law in the event of his dissatisfaction against the order so passed.
