Mr. Vikas Chatrath, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. Anant Kataria, A.A.G., Punjab.

TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA.J

Learned State counsel upon instructions from Smt. Neelam Rani, office of D.P.I (S.E.), Punjab makes a statement that in compliance of the directions issued by this Court the matter has been reconsidered and the petitioners have been held entitled to the benefit in terms of Rule 4.4 of the Punjab Civil Service Rules, Vol. I, Part-I and a revised speaking order to such effect has been issued on 16.12.2014, passed by the D.E.O (S.E.), Jalandhar. State counsel would further submit that even the computation of the consequential arrears of salary have already been worked out.

In the light of such categoric stand taken on behalf of the State, this Court is of the considered view that the directions issued by this Court have been substantially complied with. Contempt petition is, accordingly, disposed of as having been rendered infructuous.

Rule discharged.

It is, however, directed that the consequential financial benefits emanating from the order dated 16.12.2014, passed by the D.E.O (S.E.), Jalandhar be paid and released to the petitioners, within a period of six weeks from today.

Disposed of.
