CORAM: HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR JAIN

Present: Mr. Sandeep Kotla, Advocate, for the petitioners

Rakesh Kumar Jain,J: (Oral)

The petitioners were arrayed as petitioner Nos. 2,3 and 5 in Civil Writ Petition No. 9412 of 2006, which was disposed of on 10.1.2014 as infructuous because the State Counsel had made a statement that the petitioners who were deputed in service on contractual basis would not be replaced by another contractual employees and they would be allowed to continue so long as New Self Financing Scheme is in vogue.

Learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that neither the petitioners have been replaced by the contractual employees nor their services have been dispensed with during the subsistence of New Self Financing Scheme but their grievance is that the benefits arising out of the New Self Financing Scheme are not being given. In view thereof, it is submitted that the respondents have violated the order dated 10.1.2014 and are liable to be proceeded under the Contempt of Courts Act, 1971.

After hearing learned counsel for the petitioner and perusing the available record., I am of the considered opinion that no case for contempt is made out against the respondents. However, if the petitioners have made a representation to the respondents for grant of benefits arising out of the New Self Financing Scheme which have not been paid so far, they may avail their remedy in accordance with law.

Dismissed.
