RAKESH KUMAR JAIN, J. (ORAL)

Petitioner's writ was disposed of by this Court in the following manner: -

> "A mandamus is issued to the State directing it to pass a fresh order by treating the period of forced idleness as part of period spent on duty. The monetary benefits arising out of the quashing of the order and passing of the fresh one will be released to the petitioner within two months from the date, the final order is passed."

Pursuant to the aforesaid order, speaking order dated 22.1.2015 was passed and the monetary benefits were paid.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner was also liable to be promoted and has referred to the reply to his legal notice filed by the Director, Employment Generation and Training Department, Punjab in which it is observed that "regarding this directorate has already written to the government to promote Sh. Arun Kumar as per rules and regulations vide letter dated 25.6.2015 and 4.8.2015".

In view of the fact that already the department has moved the case of the petitioner for his promotion, the contempt petition is not maintainable. The petitioner may, if so advised, take up his other remedy, in accordance with law.
