

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB & HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

COCF No.477 of 2015

Date of decision:25.02.2015

Rekha

... Petitioner

Vs.

S.K. Goyal

... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA.

Present: Mr. Manoj Makkar, Advocate for the petitioner.

.....

TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA, J.

The petitioner filed CWP No.4645 of 2014 which was disposed of by the writ Court on 01.04.2014 in terms of CWP No.8065 of 2012 titled as Kismat & others Vs. State of Haryana & others.

The judgment rendered by the Court in Kismat's case (supra) has been placed on record at Annexure P-3. Perusal of the same would reveal that CWP No.8065 of 2012 was allowed and directions were issued to the respondent/authorities to consider the claim of the petitioners therein for adjustment as Instructors in the light of order passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court dated 21.01.2013.

Counsel has at this stage adverted to the order dated 21.01.2013 passed by the Hon'ble Apex Court at Annexure P-2 and in terms of which the stand of the State Government had been noticed as regards accommodating eligible respondents numbering 258 and who fulfill the requisite qualifications as per rules on humanitarian grounds in the Industrial Training Departments against vacant post.

The instant contempt petition has been filed asserting that the petitioner inspite of being eligible has not been accommodated as Instructor in the Industrial Training Department.

A specific query having been put, counsel would concede that the petitioner does not figure in the eligible candidates numbering 258, which was brought to the notice of the Hon'ble Supreme Court and in regard to which directions have been issued to be accommodated as Instructor subject to fulfilling the requisite qualifications.

Under such circumstances, no case for contempt is made out.

Dismissed.
