COCP-788-2015

In order dated 10.12.2014, the respondent was directed to decide the representation of the petitioner within a period of two months. Since the representation was allegedly not decided, therefore, the present petition has been filed in which the respondent has filed the reply appending the orders (Annexures R1 & R2), which have been passed on the representation of the petitioner.

Consequently, the order passed by this Court has been duly complied with. In case the petitioner is not satisfied with the orders (Annexures R1 & R2), he is at liberty to challenge the same. But in so far as the present petition is concerned, the same is disposed of as infructuous.
