MAHESH GROVER, J.

The order dated 9.10.2014 the non-compliance of which the petitioner alleges, required the respondents to consider the claim of the petitioner in the light of the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court referred to in the said order and pass a speaking order within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this order and with a further direction that in case the claim of the petitioner was found to be covered in his favour in terms of the said judgment, the arrears that fell due to him would be released to him within within one month thereafter with interest falling due thereupon.

Learned counsel for the respondents states at the bar that the needful has been done by passing a speaking order as has been disclosed in the reply filed by the respondents and the amount due to the petitioner has been paid to him, rendering the instant petition infructuous, which is disposed of accordingly, leaving the petitioner to his remedies under the law in the event of his dissatisfaction against the order so passed.
