S.J. VAZIFDAR, A.C.J. (ORAL)

This is a Civil Revision against the order of the learned Civil Judge (Senior Division), Faridabad allowing the application for amendment of the plaint.

2. The two main amendments were to correct the reference of the village 'Tajpur' to 'Tajupur'. If indeed that is a typographical error, there is no reason why the application for amendment ought not to be allowed. As far as the amendment to the place where the plaintiff had attended the office of the Sub Registrar is concerned, it is not necessary at this stage to consider the correctness of the order. In so far as it allows the amendment by changing the reference to the place where the plaintiff/respondent attended the office of the Sub Registrar, the petitioner can always challenge the same from the final order or decree, if necessary. Moreover, the issue as to whether the document relied upon by the respondent is fabricated or not can be decided at the final hearing of the suit.

3. The Civil Revision is accordingly disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to challenge the order to the extent mentioned above from the final order or decree, if necessary.
