Mr.G.S.Gandhi, Advocate
for the respondent

ARUN PALLI, J.(ORAL):-

Having argued the matter at some length, learned counsel for the petitioner, on instructions, submits that the petitioner be only afforded a year's time to vacate the demised premises, as he does not wish to press this petition on merits.

Learned counsel for the respondent does not oppose the prayer that has been advanced by counsel for the petitioner. Rather, it is maintained that let one year's time be granted to the petitioner to vacate the demised premises.

That being so, the petition is disposed of, in the following terms:

1. The petitioner shall continue to occupy the demised premises for a period of one year from today i.e upto 21.09.2016.

Civil Revision No.2105 of 2011(O & M) -2-

2. The entire arrears of rent, if any, shall be deposited by the petitioner, with the Executing Court, within a period of four weeks from today, failing which, the respondent-landlord shall be at liberty to execute the order of eviction, forthwith.

3. The petitioner shall continue to deposit the future rent/mesne profits by 7th of every month with the Executing Court. In the event of even a single default, the respondent-landlord shall be free to execute the order of eviction and obtain possession, forthwith.

4. The petitioner shall defray the electricity/water charges for the period he would occupy the demised premises.

5. The petitioner shall vacate and hand over the actual and physical possession of the demised premises, free from all incumbrances, on or before the stipulated date i.e.21.09.2016, failing which respondent-landlord shall be free to execute the order of eviction.

6. The petitioner shall furnish an undertaking in the form of an affidavit in the above terms, with the Executing Court, within a period of one week from today, failing which, the respondent-landlord shall be at liberty to execute the order of eviction and obtain possession.
