K. KANNAN J. (ORAL)

1. There is no scope for intervention at the instance of a neighbour that the factory shall not be set up. If there is any statutory provision against running a factory, it will be open to the public authorities to take appropriate action for closure of the factory or for starting an industry. As far as the defendants' concern at this stage that setting up an industry could cause the nuisance, it will be a matter of evidence whether the plaintiffs could cause nuisance by setting up industry and I find no reason to interfere with the order passed by the Court below.

2. The revision petition is dismissed.
