K. KANNAN J. (ORAL)

1. The petitioner is unable to answer any simple question relating to the pleadings. There is written statement already filed by the petitioner admitting to the averments contained in the petition for grant of probate. He now wants to resile from the same and wants to offer evidence on some other pleadings. Without any petition filed for seeking such permission, he cannot give any evidence which is contrary to the written statement which has been filed with a verification by him attesting to the contents of the written statement as true and signed alongside by a counsel representing on his behalf. It is not possible to allow for any evidence in the absence of any particular petition filed to resile from such statement.

2. I decline to make any interference. The civil revision is dismissed.
