ARUN PALLI, J. (Oral)

Learned counsel for respondent No.1 submit that the dispute between the parties stands settled and the petitioner has given in writing to vacate the demised premises. Thus, nothing substantive survives in the petition and the same be disposed of as having become infructuous.

Learned counsel for the petitioner does not dispute this position but submits that he does not have any concrete instructions in this regard. Be that as it may, the petition is disposed of as having become infructuous. However, if any, dispute, interest or cause of action still survives, petitioner shall be at liberty to move the necessary application for restoration of the petition, for decision on merits.

That being so, the petition is disposed of as having become infructuous with the liberty as prayed for.
