ARUN PALLI J. (Oral)

On September 28, 2015, this court had passed the following order:

“Having argued the matter at some length, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that let the petitioner be only afforded six months' time to vacate the premises, as he does not wish to press the petition on merits.

Notice of motion, as well as notice in the application for condonation of delay in re-filing the petition, for 14.10.2015.

Process dasti as well with liberty to serve the respondents through their counsel before the Rent Controller/Appellate Authority/Executing Court.

To be shown in the urgent list.

Status quo as it exists today shall be maintained till the adjourned date of hearing.”

Mr. KR Dhawan, Advocate, has caused appearance on behalf of the respondents and submits that he does not oppose the prayer that has been advanced by learned counsel for the petitioner and let six months' time be granted to the petitioner-tenant to vacate the demised premises.

That being so, the petition is disposed of in the following terms:

i) petitioner-tenant shall continue to occupy the demised premises for a period of six months from today i.e. upto 13.04.2016;

ii) the entire arrears of rent, if any, shall be paid by the petitioner-tenant to the respondent-landlord within four weeks from today, failing which respondent-landlord shall be free to execute the order of eviction;

iii) petitioner shall continue to pay the future rent/mesne profits by 7th of every month to the respondent-landlord. In the event of even a single default, respondent-landlord shall be at liberty to execute the order of eviction forthwith;

iv) petitioner shall defray all the water/electricity charges for the period he would occupy the demised premises;

v) petitioner shall vacate the demised premises and hand-over its actual physical and vacant possession, free from all encumbrances to the respondent-landlord, on or before the stipulated date i.e. 13.04.2016, failing which respondent-landlord shall be free to execute the order of eviction and obtain possession; and

vi) petitioner shall furnish an undertaking in the above terms, by way of an affidavit, within two weeks from today, before the executing court, failing which again respondent-landlord shall be at liberty to execute the order of eviction.
