K. KANNAN, J. (Oral)

1. The defendant who set up a right of possession under an agreement of sale in a suit for injunction sought production of the original document, said to be filed on a criminal case. Previously, she had filed only a photo copy of the agreement which had been marked. Now she sought the production of the original. The trial court ought to have allowed for its production. The denial of permission was erroneous and it is set aside.

2. The revision petition is allowed and the original document is directed to be received. The trial court may expeditiously dispose of the suit
