CM No.18656-CII of 2015

Allowed as prayed for.

CR No.2993 of 2014

Vide order dated 15.02.2014, rendered by the Civil Judge (Senior Division), Bhiwani, application for injunction moved by the respondents No.1 and 2-plaintiffs was accepted and the defendants were restrained from causing interference in their peaceful possession over the suit property. As even the appeal preferred against the said order failed and was dismissed vide order dated 9.4.2014, the petitioner/defendant No.1 is before this Court.

Having argued the matter at some length, learned counsel for the parties, on instructions from their respective clients, who are present in person, have reached a consensus that let this petition be disposed of only with a direction to the trial Court to decide the suit within a specified time as the matter is already fixed for recording plaintiffs' evidence. Further, both the parties be afforded two opportunities each to conclude their respective evidence.

That being so, and without expressing any opinion on merits, the revision petition is disposed of with a direction to the trial Court that both the parties shall be afforded two effective opportunities each to lead and conclude their respective evidence. And the suit shall be decided within a period of six months from the date of receipt of the certified copy of this order.
