ARUN PALLI J. (Oral)

On August 26, 2015, this court had passed the following order:

“Having argued the matter at some length, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner be only afforded six month's time to vacate the demised premises, as he does not wish to press the petition on merits.

Notice of motion for 03.09.2015.

Process dasti as well with the liberty to serve through the counsel for the respondent before the trial court.

To be shown in the urgent list.”

Mr. Harsh Kinra, Advocate, Advocate has caused appearance on behalf of the respondents and submits that he does not oppose the prayer made by the petitioner and let six months' time be granted to the petitioner-tenant to hand-over the vacant possession of the shop in question to the respondent-landlord.

That being so, the petition is disposed of in the following terms:

i) petitioner-tenant shall continue to occupy the demised premises for a period of six months from today i.e. upto 03.03.2016;

ii) the entire arrears of rent, if any, shall be paid by the petitioner-tenant to the respondent-landlord within two weeks from today;

iii) petitioner shall continue to pay the future rent/mesne profits by 7th of every month to the respondent-landlord. In the event of even a single default, respondent-landlord shall be at liberty to execute the order of eviction forthwith;

iv) petitioner shall be under obligation to defray all the electricity and water charges for the period he would occupy the demised premises;

v) petitioner shall vacate the demised premises and hand-over its actual physical and vacant possession, free from all encumbrances to the respondent-landlord, on or before the stipulated date i.e. 03.03.2016, failing which respondent-landlord shall be free to execute the order of eviction and obtain possession; and

vi) petitioner shall furnish an undertaking in the above terms, by way of an affidavit, within a week from today, before the executing court, failing which again respondent-landlord shall be at liberty to execute the order of eviction.
