K. KANNAN J. (ORAL)

The revision petition is dismissed as withdrawn with liberty to be given to the petitioner to advance his arguments regarding the maintainability of the suit, tenability of his claim and in whatever way he wants to prosecute the case against the defendant. The understanding of the order is that the suit is still kept pending and he has not been allowed to withdraw the case. The order passed by the Court already will not come in the way of deciding the plaintiff's claims on merits.
