- 3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

Present: Mr.Vinod Khunger, Advocate for the petitioner

Mr.Puneet Bansal, Advocate for the caveator-respondent

ARUN PALLI, J.(ORAL):-

Having argued the matter at some length, learned counsel for the petitioner, on instructions, submits that let the petitioner be afforded only one and a half year's time to vacate the premises, as he does not wish to press the petition, on merits.

Notice of motion.

Mr.Puneet Kumar Bansal, Advocate, present in the Court, accepts notice on behalf of the caveator-respondent. Caveat is discharged. Learned counsel for the respondent does not oppose the prayer that has been advanced by learned counsel for the petitioner. Rather, it is maintained that let year and a half time be granted to the petitioner to vacate the demised premises. That being so, the petition is disposed of in these terms:

- 1.The petitioner shall continue to occupy the demised premises for a period of one and a half year from today i.e.upto 13.03.2017.

Civil Revision No.4895 of 2014(O & M)

2. The entire arrears of rent, if any, shall be deposited by the petitioner with the respondent-landlord, within four weeks from today, failing which, the respondent shall be at liberty to execute the order of eviction, forthwith.

3. The petitioner shall continue to deposit the future rent/mesne profits by 7th of every month with the respondent-landlord. In the event of even a single default, the respondent-landlord shall be free to execute the order of eviction and obtain possession, forthwith.

4. The petitioner shall defray the electricity/water charges for the period he would occupy the demised premises.

5. The petitioner shall vacate and hand over the actual and physical possession of the demised premises, free from all incumbrances, on or before the stipulated date i.e.13.03.2017, failing which respondent-landlord shall be free to execute the order of eviction.

6. The petitioner shall furnish an undertaking in the form of an affidavit in the above terms, with the Executing Court, within a period of one week from today, failing which, the respondent-landlord shall be at liberty to execute the order of eviction and obtain possession.
