

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CR No.5548 of 2014 (O&M)
Date of Decision: 23.02.2015

M/s Pehlad Rai Pawan Kumar

. . . .Petitioner

Versus

Dadri Education Society

. . . . Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR JAIN

Present: Mr.Akash Singla, Advocate, for the petitioner.

RAKESH KUMAR JAIN, J. (ORAL)

After arguing for some time, learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that he does not want to press this petition on merits, however, he prays that the petitioner may be given some time to vacate the demised premises in order to find out an alternate accommodation.

The prayer made by the petitioner is innocuous, therefore, I do not find any reason to issue notice to the respondent at this stage.

The petition is thus hereby dismissed on merits and the petitioner is granted six months time to retain the possession of the demised premises subject to the following conditions:-

1. The petitioner shall clear all the arrears of rent within 15 days, if any due.
2. The petitioner shall keep on paying the monthly rent on or before 10th day of every month.

I attest to the accuracy and authenticity of this document

3. The petitioner shall retain the demised premises upto 24.8.2015 and shall vacate the same on or before the said date.
4. The petitioner shall furnish an undertaking, within 15 days from the date of passing of this order, by way of an affidavit that it would vacate the demised premises on or before 24.8.2015.

It is made clear that in case of violation of any of the conditions imposed hereinabove, the order of eviction would stop operating immediately and the petitioner would also make itself liable for punishment under the Contempt of Courts Act, 1971.
