R.P. Nagrath, J. (Oral)

CM No. 17159-CII of 2014

For the reasons stated in the application, which is supported by an affidavit, the same is allowed and delay of 49 days in re-filing the instant petition, is condoned.

CR No. 5589 of 2014

The instant petition has been filed under Article 227 of the Constitution of India, seeking to set aside the order dated 19.05.2011 (Annexure P-1) passed by the trial Court, whereby application filed by the petitioner under Order XXXIX Rules 1 and 2 read with Section 151 of the code of Civil Procedure (CPC) was dismissed and the order dated 27.09.2013 (Annexure P-2), passed by the learned Appellate Court, dismissing the appeal filed by the petitioner against the order of the trial Court.

At the outset, learned counsel for the petitioner confines his prayer qua a direction to the trial Court for disposal of the main suit expeditiously and in a time bound manner.

Learned counsel further submits that the evidence of the petitioner-plaintiff has already been closed and that only two witnesses of the respondent-defendants remain to be examined.

In view of the above, the instant petition is disposed of with a direction to the trial Court to dispose of the suit within a period of six months from the date already fixed before it.
