ARUN PALLI, J.(ORAL):-

Having argued the matter at some length, learned counsel for the parties have reached a consensus that let the petitioners be only afforded a year's time to vacate the demised premises, as they do not wish to press this petition on merits and in the interregnum, they shall continue to pay the agreed rent i.e. ₹ 3355/- per month.

That being so, the petition is disposed of in the following terms:

1. The petitioners shall continue to occupy the demised premises for a period of one year from today i.e. upto 18.11.2016.
2. The entire arrears of rent, if any, shall be deposited by the petitioners with the respondent-landlord, within two weeks from today, failing which, the respondent shall be at liberty to execute the order of eviction, forthwith.

3. The petitioners shall continue to deposit the future rent/mesne profits by 7th of every month with the respondent-landlord. In the event of even a single default, the respondent-landlord shall be free to execute the order of eviction and obtain possession, forthwith.

4. The petitioners shall defray the electricity/water charges for the period they would occupy the demised premises.

5. The petitioners shall vacate and hand over the actual and physical possession of the demised premises, free from all incumbrances on or before the stipulated date i.e.18.11.2016, failing which respondent-landlord shall be free to execute the order of eviction.

6. The petitioners shall furnish an undertaking in the form of an affidavit in the above terms, before this Court, within a period of two weeks from today, failing which, the respondent-landlord shall be at liberty to execute the order of eviction and obtain actual physical possession.
