

IN THE HIGH COURT FOR THE STATES OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH.

CR 6153 of 2014

Date of decision:- 3.8.2015

Ajmer Singh and anr

Petitioners

VS.

Buta Singh and anr

Respondent

Present: None
 Respondent ex-parte.

M.M.S.BEDI,J.

On the last date of hearing it was informed that the matter was likely to be compromised. It was ordered that in case a genuine compromise stands arrived at between the parties, it would be open to the executing court to entertain the second application without prejudice to the rights of the affected defendant- respondent or any third party.

No one has put in appearance on behalf of the petitioners. Implying that the matter has been compromised , the petition is dismissed for non prosecution.

August 3 ,2015
TSM

(M.M.S.BEDI)
JUDGE