K.Kannan, J. (Oral)

The suit for specific performance filed after 16 years from the date of agreement after the death of the plaintiff's father was accompanied with the claim for interim injunction under Order 39 Rules 1 and 2 CPC. There were serious issues to contend with at the trial with reference to the law of limitation and if the courts below have not granted the benefit of injunction finding that there was no prima facie case available, I will not make any modification. The orders passed by the courts below are sustained and the revision petition is dismissed.
