

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB & HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH.

CR No.701 of 2015

Date of Decision:-30.01.2015

Ravi Ranjan Prasad Singh.

.....Petitioner.

Versus

Sangeeta Singh.

.....Respondent.

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JASWANT SINGH

Present:- Mr. Rajesh Bansal, Advocate for the Petitioner.

JASWANT SINGH, J.(ORAL)

Petitioner is in revision assailing the order dated 10.10.2014 (P-1) whereby the learned Family Court in the pending divorce petition initiated by the husband has granted visitation rights in a scheduled manner to the petitioner for meeting his minor 14 years old daughter Sangh Nehita.

Having heard learned Counsel for the petitioner, this Court finds no merit in the present revision petition.

It is apparent that the petitioner is employed at Calcutta and the minor daughter is residing with her mother and studying in a good school at Gurgaon. It is further apparent from the order that opportunity has been granted to the petitioner to visit his minor daughter as and when he visits Gurgaon subject to of course consent and convenience of the respondent-wife, who concededly is also working estranged wife. The Court below has also granted the custody of the child for a period of 10 days during summer vacations as per mutual consent of the parties, therefore, there appears to be absolutely no fault with the approach adopted by the learned Court below which in facts of the case appears to be most well founded keeping in view the respective interests of the parties.

In view of the above, finding no merit in the present revision petition the same is hereby dismissed with costs of Rs.5,000/- to be deposited with State Legal Services Authority, Gurgaon.
