Date of decision:30.11.2015

Dharamveer

... Petitioner

versus

Fatehgarh Sahib.

.... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE K. KANNAN

Present: Mr. Rakesh Chopra, Advocate, for the petitioner.

K.Kannan, J. (Oral)

The revision is disposed of as having become infructuous in view of the fact that the suit itself has been disposed of. The revision is against an order passed at the interlocutory stage.
Needless to state that the petitioner will have appropriate remedy to canvass the correctness of the order passed in the regular second appeal as one of the grounds amongst other grounds of appeal.
