

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

Civil Revision No.6957 of 2012 (O&M)

Date of decision:26.03.2015

Parminder Singh and another ... Petitioners versus

Jinder Kaur and others Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE K. KANNAN

Present: Mr. S.S. Rang, Advocate, for the petitioners.

None for the respondents.

K.Kannan, J. (Oral)

1. The revision is against an order filed making a claim in relation to the property at the execution stage. The order passed has the same effect as a decree under Order 21 Rule 58(4) CPC. The civil revision is ordered to be returned and the petitioners are at liberty to present the same by way of an appeal under Section 96 of the Civil Procedure Code before the court of competent jurisdiction. If there is a delay, the petitioners will explain the same by means of an application under Section 14 of the Limitation Act and the court will consider the case in accordance with law.
2. The civil revision is disposed of with the above observations. The Registry to return the original papers.

(K.KANNAN)
JUDGE

26.03.2015

sanjeev