Impugned in the present revision is the order dated 17.10.2015, passed by the learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), Barnala, vide which the application of the defendant under Section 151 CPC for examining the hand writing expert, was dismissed.

The learned counsel for the revisionist contends that the application moved by the defendant for additional evidence was dismissed when the case was fixed for arguments. However, now the case has been decided on merits. Therefore, he wants to withdraw the present revision with liberty to file an application for
