CR 740 of 2015

Date of Decision: March 23, 2015

Gursewak Singh @ Sewak Singh

.....Petitioner

Vs.

Rajvir Kaur and another

.....Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.M.S. BEDI.

M.M.S. BEDI, J. (ORAL)

Counsel for the petitioner, in response to the interim order dated February 2, 2015 has submitted that the petitioner is not in a capacity to pay a sum of Rs.20000/- as litigation expenses for summoning respondent No.1 wife before the Mediation and Conciliation Centre.

The revision petition has been taken for consideration on merits. Vide impugned order in a petition under Section 13 of the Hindu marriage Act filed by respondent wife, against the petitioner she has been granted interim maintenance of Rs.2500/- per month whereas as respondent No.2, son has been granted Rs.1000/- per month.

Counsel for the petitioner submits that the matter had earlier been compromised vide annexure P-1 and that the father of the petitioner had paid a sum of Rs.7 lacs to the father of the complainant and the parties had agreed that there would be no relationship between them.

I have considered the facts and circumstances of this case and I am of the opinion that the compromise, if any, vide annexure P-1 will not prima facie bind respondent Rajvir Kaur. It will certainly be debatable whether the agreement annexure P-1 will effect the matrimonial rights of husband and wife.

Considering on merits, it appears that the sum of Rs.2500/- per month for the wife and Rs.1000/- per month for the son is not on higher side and is the bare minimum amount required for survival by a family. No ground is made out for interference.

Dismissed.
