CORAM: HON'BLE MRS.JUSTICE SNEH PRASHAR

Present: Mr.Saurabh Dalal, Advocate for the petitioner

SNEH PRASHAR, J.

The present revision petition under Article 227 of the Constitution of India has been filed for setting aside the order dated 20.8.2015 passed by learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), Rohtak vide which the evidence of the petitioners/ defendants was closed by order.

The submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioners have been heard.

At the very outset, learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the instant petition has been filed seeking just one more opportunity for producing the remaining evidence as otherwise, they will suffer an irreparable loss.

A bare perusal of the zimni orders, annexed with the petition, shows that the evidence of the petitioners/defendants started on 11.11.2014 and till date they have availed as many as 36 opportunities and despite that they have not been able to produce their entire evidence. The matter pertains to the year 2008. The petitioners have already been granted more than sufficient opportunities and their failure to yet conclude their evidence only shows that they are deliberately delaying the matter. In fact their conduct amounts to abuse of process of the Court.

Thus, keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case, in the considered opinion, there is no illegality or perversity warranting intervention in the impugned order. As such, the present revision petition being devoid of any merit is dismissed.
