SNEH PRASHAR, J.

The present revision petition under Article 227 of the Constitution of India has been filed for setting aside the order dated 15.11.2014 passed by learned Civil Judge (Jr.Divn.), Rajpura, as well as order dated 27.5.2015 passed by learned Additional District Judge, Patiala.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that an application under Order XXXIX Rules 1 and 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure filed by plaintiffs has since been disposed of by learned trial court as well as learned first appellate court and both the parties have been directed to maintain status quo with regard to the possession qua the suit property. However, the petitioners -defendants No. 1 to 4 had also filed an application, which has not been decided by learned trial Court so far. She further submits that the only grievance of the petitioners is that the application has not been decided by learned trial Court.

Since during the course of arguments, learned counsel for the petitioners does not challenge the orders, which had actually been impugned, the present revision petition is dismissed.

However, for disposal of the application filed by the petitioners, if any, they are at liberty to approach the trial Court.
