CR No.7617 of 2014

While issuing notice of motion on 11.11.2014, the following order was passed by this Court, which reads as under:-

“Counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner's father is the judgment debtor and has been directed to hand-over possession of 19 Marlas of land to the plaintiff, who is the predecessor of the respondents No.1 and 2. The petitioner's land is adjoining to the land in dispute and warrants of possession have been issued vide order dated 05.11.2014 for 06.12.2014. Third party objections had been filed on the said date and have been adjourned and kept for the same date. The petitioner has also applied for demarcation before the Revenue Authorities. It is submitted that in such circumstances, the petitioner is liable to be dispossessed under the garb of the execution of the decree dated 14.05.2009 and the Executing Court was in error in issuing warrants of possession, once the objections were filed.

Notice of motion for 03.02.2015.

In the meantime, the warrants of possession shall not be executed.”

The third party objections thus which had been filed by the petitioner have now been dismissed on 27.01.2015 (Annexure A-1).

In the said circumstances, the present revision petition stands disposed of having been rendered infructuous as the petitioner has an independent right to challenge the said order.
