The right of cross-examination has been denied to the defendant on the absence of the counsel at the time when it was posted for cross-examination. The order is set aside on the payment of cost of ₹ 2,500/- to the respondents, within a period of two weeks. If the cost is not paid, the order passed already will stand restored.

I dispense with notice to the respondents having regard to the nature of the order passed only to enable a quick conclusion of the trial.

The civil revision petition is allowed.
