When the matter was taken up on 19.08.2013, counsel for the appellant had submitted that the appellant had already undergone more than 10 years of imprisonment, therefore, he did not press the bail application.

The State counsel had been asked to verify whether appellant was still in custody. After verifying it from the jail authority, learned State counsel informs that the appellant was released on 12.08.2014 upon completion of his sentence.

Custody certificate dated 18.08.2013 shows that the actual sentence had expired on 12.08.2013 and at that time, the appellant was undergoing sentence in lieu of fine.

In view of the above, the appeal stands dismissed as having become infructuous.
