The instant writ petition was filed in the year 1993 assailing the order dated 10.6.1992 at Annexure P-7, whereby the seniority of the petitioner in the parent cadre of the Haryana Armed Police had been re-fixed and to his detriment.

At the stage of preliminary hearing and issuing notice of motion on 19.4.1993, a Division Bench of this Court had directed that the petitioner would not be reverted from the rank he was holding at that point of time i.e. Inspector of Police. The writ petition was, thereafter, admitted and the interim order has continued.

Pleadings on record would show that the petitioner had been initially appointed in the Haryana Police in the year 1966 as a Constable. Apparently, petitioner would have by now superannuated while still enjoying the interim protection granted by this Court.

Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that as of date she would have no instructions in the matter. Even State counsel is not in a position to submit as to whether anything would survive for adjudication at this stage.

This Court is of the view that by virtue of efflux of time, the present writ petition has been rendered infructuous. The same is, accordingly, disposed of. Liberty, however, is granted to the petitioner to seek revival of the petition by filing a requisite application to demonstrate if any cause of action still survives.

Disposed of.
