CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE T.P.S. MANN HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE MAHAVIR S. CHAUHAN

Present : Mr. Kamaldip Singh Sidhu, Advocate for the appellant.

T.P.S. MANN, J.

The appellant, who had received injuries in the occurrence in question, has filed the present appeal for challenging the judgment dated 22.12.2014 passed by the Additional Sessions Judge, SBS Nagar whereby respondent-Gurmit Ram was acquitted of the charge under Section 307 IPC.

Having heard learned counsel for the appellant and on going through the impugned judgment of acquittal, this Court finds that in the initial statement made by the appellant on the basis of which FIR was registered, respondent-Gurmit Ram was not attributed any role. However, when the appellant appeared before the trial Court, he testified that respondent-Gurmit Ram had raised lalkara that the complainant be killed. Further, the main accused, who was said to be an unidentified person and attributed causing of datar blows to the appellant, was neither apprehended nor could be traced by the police during the investigation of the case as the appellant failed to disclose his physical features.

In view of the above, no case is made out for any interference in the impugned judgment of acquittal passed by the trial Court.

The appeal is without any merit and, accordingly, dismissed.
