MAHESH GROVER, J.

Learned counsel for the State submits that instant petition has been rendered infructuous in view of the fact that challenge in the instant petition is to an award of the Labour Court dated 21.12.1992 where interim orders though initially granted were vacated on 12.11.1993, pursuant to which the award was implemented as per the information supplied by learned State counsel.

In view of above, instant petition has been rendered infructuous as no cause fit for adjudication survives in it.

Hence, dismissed as infructuous.
