- 3) Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest ?

Present: Mr. Satnam Singh Gill, Advocate, for the appellant.

Mr. S.S.Chandumajra, DAG, Punjab.

Paramjeet Singh, J. (Oral)

Present criminal appeal has been preferred by the appellant against judgment of conviction dated 26.11.2014 and order of sentence dated 28.11.2014 passed by the Special Judge, Patiala whereby appellant has been convicted for the offence punishable under Section 18 of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985 and sentenced to undergo rigorous imprisonment for a period of one year and six months and to pay a fine of ₹5,000/-, in default, to further undergo imprisonment for three months.

CRA-S-232-SB-2015

I need not dilate upon the facts of this case in detail as the same have already been recapitulated in the judgment of the learned Court below and in view of the ultimate prayer of the appellant seeking reduction in sentence.

I have heard the learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

Learned counsel for the appellant states that he is not pressing this appeal on merit and is not challenging the conviction on merit. He is only aggrieved against the sentence part. Learned counsel for the appellant prays that the sentence of the appellant be suitably reduced as this criminal trial is hanging on his head like Damocle's sword for more than 3½ years and it should be a sufficient mitigating circumstance to treat him leniently. Learned counsel for the appellant has further submitted that FIR relates to the year 2011 and since then a period of more than 3½ years has elapsed. The appellant has suffered the ordeal of trial for this long period. Learned counsel for the appellant submits that appellant has already undergone imprisonment for approximately seven months.

In view of the arguments advanced by learned counsel for the appellant, this Court is of the view that no useful purpose will be served by keeping the appellant behind the bars as the appellant had already faced ordeal for more than 3½ years. It is a fit case wherein sentence awarded to the appellant can be reduced to already undergone. Ordered accordingly. The impugned order of sentence and conviction stands affirmed with aforesaid modification. The appellant, who is stated to be in judicial custody, shall be released forthwith, if not required in any other case. However, if the amount of fine is not paid, the appellant will have to undergo default imprisonment for a period of three months as awarded by the trial Court.

With the observations made above, present appeal is disposed of.
