RAJ MOHAN SINGH, J. (Oral)

This appeal was admitted on 24.06.1988, when the case came up for hearing on regular side and was listed in due course on 23.07.2014, this court issued notices to the respondents for 27.08.2014. The case was further adjourned and on 26.11.2014, it was pointed out that as per office report, all the respondents have died. Office of learned counsel for the appellant was informed in order to enable his office to bring on record the legal representatives of the deceased respondents.

On the adjourned date, the learned counsel appearing on behalf of appellant stated that for want of power of attorney, learned counsel cannot appear and sought time to do the needful in the context of getting power of attorney as well as for impleading legal representatives of deceased respondents on record.

Today, learned counsel for the appellant has shown her inability to implead the legal representatives as well as to get their power of attorney as nobody turned up despite communication on
