

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-10049 of 2015
Date of Decision: 18.05.2015

Kulbir Singh and anotherpetitioners

Versus

State of Punjab and another ...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE SNEH PRASHAR

Present: Mr. Abhinav Oberoi, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. A.S. Klar, AAG, Punjab.

None for respondent No.2.

SNEH PRASHAR, J.

Through the present petition filed under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure (in short "Cr.P.C."), the petitioners pray for quashing of First Information Report No.24 dated 15.03.2011 for offence punishable under Sections 324, 323, 341, 506 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code (in short "I.P.C.") registered at Police Station Banur, District Mohali and subsequent proceedings emanating therefrom, on the basis of compromise (Annexure P2).

2. Vide order dated 30.03.2015, the parties were directed to appear before the trial Court to get their statements recorded with regard to genuineness of compromise. Pursuant thereto, a report has been submitted by Judicial Magistrate First Class, Rajpura, wherein it has been reported that statements of the parties have been recorded and that they have voluntarily compromised the matter. Learned counsel for the State does not dispute genuineness of the compromise in view of the report of trial Court.

3. A perusal of allegations in the First Information Report reveals that the present case squarely falls in that category of cases which can be quashed by the High Court, in exercise of its inherent power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. Keeping in view the authoritative enunciation of law laid down by Hon'ble the Supreme Court in 'Gian Singh v. State of Punjab and another', 2012(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 543 and in the light of facts and circumstances of the present case, this Court is of the considered opinion that continuation of criminal proceedings would amount to abuse of process of law and it is expedient in the interest of justice that criminal proceedings are put to an end.

In this view of the matter, the petition is allowed and First Information Report No. No.24 dated 15.03.2011 for offence punishable under Sections 324, 323, 341, 506 and 34 of IPC registered at Police Station Banur, District Mohali and proceedings emanating therefrom stand quashed qua the petitioners.
