for respondent No.2.

JASPAL SINGH, J. (ORAL)

This is a petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for quashing of FIR No. 22 dated 28.02.2015 under Sections 420 and 120-B IPC registered at Police Station Rajasansi, District Amritsar (Rural), on the basis of compromise along with all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom.

2. Report of learned Judicial Magistrate has been received, in which, it has been categorically observed that compromise was effected between the parties without any pressure or undue influence. The same is genuine one. Even otherwise, matter involved in these proceedings is personal in nature, which has been amicably put at rest.

3. So, in view of circumstances narrated above as well as the observations made in case reported as Gian Singh v. State of Punjab and another; 2012(4) RCR(Criminal) 543, I am of the considered opinion that continuation of criminal proceedings between the parties would be an abuse of the process of law and the present compromise is for the benefit of the parties and would certainly bring peace and harmony between them.

4. Consequently, instant petition is allowed and FIR No. 22 dated 28.02.2015 under Sections 420 and 120-B IPC registered at Police Station Rajasansi, District Amritsar (Rural), and all other subsequent proceedings emanating therefrom stand quashed qua petitioners.
