Date of decision: 7.4.2015

ISHAR SINGH

.....Petitioner

Versus

STATE OF PUNJAB AND ANOTHER

.....Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJ MOHAN SINGH

Present: Mr. Mohan Singh Chauhan, Advocate, for the petitioner.

RAJ MOHAN SINGH, J.

Learned counsel for the petitioner states that FIR was registered in the year 1998 and thereafter, petitioner went abroad. Co-accused were tried in the case and were acquitted on 23.10.1012 (Annexure P-2). Complainant Girja, while appearing as PW-1, did not support the prosecution case. Petitioner was declared a proclaimed offender and now he wants to join the stream. The apprehension of learned counsel for the petitioner is that though the offences are bailable but on account of the petitioner being declared a proclaimed offender, he may not be sent to jail. The apprehension of the petitioner is misconceived. Ordinarily in case of bailable offence when the accused wants to join the main stream, he is not to be sent to jail.

In view of this, let the petitioner appears before the trial

Court and files an application for regular bail. In the event of such surrender and filing of application for regular bail, trial Court shall decide the same without any undue delay in accordance with law.

Petition stands disposed of accordingly.
