RAJ MOHAN SINGH, J. (Oral)

Prayer in this petition is for quashing of FIR No.64 dated 27.05.2014 registered under Sections 323/324 and 506 of IPC at Police Station Makbulpura, District Amritsar (Annexure P1) on the basis of compromise.

This Court, on 07.04.2015 passed the following order:-

“Prayer in this petition is for quashing of FIR on the basis of compromise.

Notice of motion for 21.5.2015.

Meanwhile, parties are directed to appear before trial Court on 21.4.2015 and get their statements recorded. Trial Court is directed to form its opinion with regard to veracity and genuineness of the compromise in question and make a report to that effect and send the same to this Court before the date fixed.”

In pursuance to the aforesaid order, both the parties appeared before the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Amritsar and got their statements recorded in which they have fully endorsed the factum of compromise and stated that the compromise in question is voluntarily executed and is free from all coercion and pressure of any kind.

Chief Judicial Magistrate, Amritsar, vide his report dated 15.05.2015, also endorsed the factum of compromise and opined that the compromise in question is genuine, voluntary and is the outcome of volition and free will of the parties.

This Court is of the opinion that in view of compromise between the parties, chances of conviction of the accused are remote and there is minimal chance of the witnesses coming forward to depose in support of prosecution version. In view of remote chances of conviction, it would be appropriate to exercise discretionary power of this Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C. to put an end to the controversy for all times to come. The compromise would facilitate both the parties to live in peace and to maintain public tranquility and offence in question is personal in nature and does not involve any heinous and serious offence of any mental depravity, nor it involves any offence covered under Prevention of Corruption Act. Therefore, when possibility of conviction is remote and bleak, continuation of criminal proceedings would put the accused to oppression and prejudice. In such a situation the exercise of power to quash the proceedings would be in consonance with the provisions of law to meet ends of justice and to prevent unnecessary continuation of proceedings which may ultimately result in some unnecessary vagaries of criminal trial.

The State on notice, however, object to the aforesaid course, but in order to prevent unnecessary continuation of criminal proceedings on the ground that there are bleak chances of conviction in the case, this Court is of the opinion that it would be in fitness of things to quash the proceedings on the basis of compromise.

Resultantly, FIR No.64 dated 27.05.2014 registered under Sections 323/324 and 506 of IPC at Police Station Makbulpura, District Amritsar (Annexure P1) and all the subsequent proceedings arising therefrom, are quashed.
