3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

On 09.04.2015 the following order was passed:-

“The instant petition has been filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. seeking quashing of the FIR No.40 dated 11.08.2011, under Sections 323/326/34 IPC, registered at Police Station Mattewal, District Amritsar on the basis of compromise dated 27.03.2015 at Annexure P-2, which as per counsel has been entered into between the parties.

Notice of motion, returnable for 29.06.2015.

In the meanwhile, parties are directed to appear before the trial Court/Illaq Magistrate concerned on 27.04.2015 for recording of their statements.

A report as regards veracity of the compromise be furnished to this Court on or before the adjourned.”

Thereafter, the report of the Sub Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Baba Bakala Sahib dated 07.05.2015 has been received whereby he has mentioned that the parties had appeared before him and had attested to the fact that a compromise has indeed taken place between them and that the compromise has been executed voluntarily and without any pressure.

Learned Deputy Advocate General, on instructions from ASI Hardyal Singh stated that accused Gurwinder Singh, petitioner No.2 has gone abroad. Further from the statements it is clear that the complainant has compromised the case with all the accused.

The Hon'ble Supreme Court in Gian Singh v. State of Punjab and another reported as 2012(4) RCR(Criminal) 543 has discussed in detail the inherent powers of High Court in quashing a criminal proceeding or FIR or complaint where the parties have entered into compromise except the cases which involve offences such as murder, rape dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have serious impact on society.

In view of the above judicial pronouncement, I am of the considered opinion that continuation of criminal proceedings between the parties would be an abuse of the process of law and the present compromise is for their benefit and will bring peace and harmony between them.

Consequently, this petition is allowed and the above said FIR and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom are quashed qua the petitioners.

Since the main case has been decided, the pending Criminal Misc. Application, if any, also stands disposed of.
